2001 ZINFANDEL

Napa Valley

This 2001 Zinfandel is one of the best from a truly superlative vintage. We had a moderate to cool growing season in our Calistoga vineyard, and we harvested in late September under ideal conditions. The result is a wine with all the glories of Zinfandel: deep purple color, medium to full body, and good balance with exceptional elegance and finesse.

This wine is certainly one to be savored. The nose is rich with blackberry, currants, and hints of cinnamon and clove. In the mouth, there are pronounced strawberry and rhubarb flavors, ripe plums, and hints of dried cherries, followed by a crisp, elegant finish. Enjoy it with a game hen rubbed with apricot preserves or even a pork tenderloin finished with a red wine reduction sauce. Mmmm, heaven!

This Zinfandel may contain "wine diamonds" or tartrate crystals, as well as sediment - both are naturally present in wines and are a sign of minimal processing. You may wish to decant this wine before serving.
